"FREE WOODS" NEXT MONTH:

For this editor, the arrival of December, each year, means the mailing of the year's 'free woods', all of which are donated to C.A.W.M.C. This mailing is only to those members who have requested that I hold back all the monthly issues for a 'once a year', safe mailing. Some woods I deliver personally as I see these members frequently. This mailing would not happen if it were not for the efforts of Lou Vesh, who once again has made the cardboard inserts used for the mailing. Lou spends many hours cutting and drilling and to him I am indebted. Thank you, Lou. These larger envelopes, while costing more to mail, are processed differently by our post office, thus avoiding the breaking of the 'woods'. Look for your 'free woods' next month.

NEED MATERIAL:

Yes, I need more material for this 'Timber Talk' newsletter for the coming months. I am so indebted to some few people for sending material to me so frequently. Lou Vesh is one good example of these people. He is always sending 'wood' related articles for inclusion. He has a write-up for every single wood that he makes and issues. I know the membership enjoy reading his material. He documents wood-related experiences and submits them. One such article appears on page six of this newsletter. This article has been published before for another 'wood' collecting club so some members may have already read it. Many thanks for your submissions, Lou.

Now, let's hear from others of you, as well, as I need material desperately. Jot down the information and, if necessary, I'll write it up in story form. A lack of material means this newsletter will not be 'monthly' and/or drastically shortened.

RENEWAL OF C.A.W.M.C. MEMBERSHIP:

This is the time of year when we have to think about renewing our membership in the various organizations to which we might belong. C.A.W.M.C. is no exception to this. If you haven't already done so, please use the enclosed 'renewal form' to complete this task. The address of our membership chairman (Al Munro) is on the form. C.A.W.M.C. always gives a 'grace' period into the new year before removing names from a mailing list but it makes it so much easier for Al when the renewals come in on time. Please do it now.

Are you getting a Christmas wood made? Send it along, to be shown, for all members to see.

GLENN RODGER RECEIVES HONOURARY LIFE MEMBERSHIP:

At this past summer's annual C.A.W.M.C. general meeting, GLENN RODGER was awarded a C.A.W.M.C. Honourary Life Membership. On September 18th, 2004, past president Earl Salterio delivered the award to Glenn when he visited him and his wife Mildred in Fredericton, New Brunswick. Glenn received a certificate and a wooden flat both pictured below.

Earl reports that Glenn was thrilled to receive the award and also that Glenn's health is reasonably well. Glenn expressed to the Officers and Members of C.A.W.M.C. his sincere thanks. Shown here is a photo of Glenn and Earl.

Nickelou Notes..... Lou Vesh

This may look like an ad for a meat distributor, but in reality it's a quest for the wooden nickels put out by that company. It seems that the "Maple Lane Bison Ranch" raises and distributes (and serves) buffalo meat and food items made from buffalo meat (i.e. buffalo burgers, sausage, etc.) Along with their products they apparently give away wooden nickels. A friend of mine recently visited Ohio and stumbled on one of their outlets. After enjoying a buffalo burger, he picked up a couple of the woods that were available for the taking, along with a brochure about the firm. The wood is printed in black, both sides, and is shown at right. I am not familiar with the area but some of you may recognize the addresses and places shown below. I'm sure the Maple Lane Bison Ranch (MLBR) would not object to my reprinting this information here.
